

Grant Application Guidelines

General Information

Debbie Bostian, Past President of both the Maryland State PTA and the PTA Council of Frederick County, is well respected for her years of service and dedication to children and for her efforts to improve family engagement in public education. To honor her, the PTA Council of Frederick County has established The Debbie Bostian Family and Community Involvement Grant Fund with The Community Foundation of Frederick County. Grants of up to $500 will be awarded to local PTA units in Frederick County, which meet the application requirements and have met the standards of affiliation, in order to promote family and community engagement in public education.

The Community Foundation of Frederick County administers grants to organizations providing direct benefits to the people of Frederick County, Maryland. All Frederick County PTA units meeting the eligibility requirements in this application are encouraged to apply. An eligible organization must complete one application to be considered for the funds offered.
